

SOUTHERN COMFORT ANIMAL RESCUE

Providing love, care and shelter for homeless dogs since 2001

Dear friends of SoCo Rescue,

As we reflect on this past year, 2023, we find ourselves in awe of SoCo's resiliency. Despite a few rough goings, the one thing has been a constant, and that is finding successful outcomes for our precious dogs and puppies. The challenges we face as a small rescue in the rural south are unending. While SoCo could have "scaled down" due to economic strains and other stresses, we rallied with grit and dedication. With clear heads, we adopted a new motto of "Find A Way."

Over this past year, SoCo successfully transported 210 dogs and puppies, who ultimately "found their way" into the hearts and homes of phenomenal fosters and forever families. And there is one additional adoption event left in 2023. Operating a thriving rescue requires hard work and wholeheartedness from members of our rescue staff, adopters, volunteers in Georgia, New Jersey, and South Carolina, generous donors, and our friends on social media. There have been endless narratives with happy endings and celebrations, but of course, quite a few of our stories tell tales beginning with heavy hearts.

One such story focuses on the Vidalia 10. SoCo found 10 dogs living outside, with no protection from the elements, with fragile chances of survival. We swooped in and brought them to our rescue. Our vet and staff provided the medical care and love needed for them to heal. All 10 pups flourished, boarded the Freedom Ride, and now reside in loving and safe homes with regular meals and warm beds.

As we head into the New Year, may we ask for your continued support? Our adoption fees do not entirely cover the cost of the rescues, so we depend on donations of every kind, fundraisers, and social media attention to continue our mission. It is important to note that YOUR donations go directly to vet care, improving our rescue facility, nurturing our dogs, and transport. Only our kennel workers receive a salary. All donations are tax-deductible. Please donate today so our dogs may have a better tomorrow. Whatever challenges we face, with your help, we will "Find a Way." May we ask for your continued support?

Become a member of our "Find A Way" team by kindly donating. We have provided quite a few ways to give:
